Many Wrangell Women Take Nursing Course

Miss Holland, Red Cross Nurse Arrives From Seattle, and Organizes Three Classes in Nursing

Miss Holland, Red Cross nurse, arrived in Wrangell from Seattle on the Spokane Sunday morning to give a course of instruction in Home Nursing and the Care of the Sick. A committee of women canvassed the town in September to ascertain how many desired to take advantage of this training course and nearly seventy women registered for it. On Monday, notices were sent out calling a meeting for Monday night and Miss Holland organized three different classes, a morning class to meet from 9:30 to 11; an afternoon class to meet from 1:30 to 3, and an evening class which will be held from 7:30 to 9. Text books had been received from Seattle and these were distributed to those who were present. There are sixteen lessons in the course. By attending 12 of these, a certificate may be secured. For attendance at all of the lessons, a larger certificate will be given. The examination at the end of the course is optional. Mr. Grant has given the use of the store room formerly occupied by the Alaska Labor Union for a class room and it has been fitted up with cots and the necessary demonstration equipment. Any one who desires to take the course will be made welcome. While it usually takes eight weeks to complete it, an attempt will be made to finish it by the end of the year. Miss Holland, who is giving the instruction, spent six months in Juneau with Dr. Dawes and understands conditions in Alaska. She has served as hospital superintendent in Seattle during the flu epidemic and has had special flu to fit her for training the Red Cross nursing classes. The women of Wrangell consider themselves fortunate to be able to take the course and to have secured the services of Miss Holland.

The Red Cross drive committee under the leadership of J. G. Grant reports that the drive for membership renewals is progressing very satisfactorily. The others on the committee are Leo McCormack, Leonard Campbell, William Paul, Charles Benjamin, Mrs. William Tamaree and Mrs. James Bradley. The drive lasts from November 11 to 25.

The Native women of Wrangell met at the Government school Tuesday afternoon and organized a nursing class of 20 under the leadership of Miss Holland. The first lesson was given Wednesday afternoon and another will be given Saturday afternoon.

Wm. Hood left for Seattle Tuesday on the Spokane. Mr. Hood will visit his daughter, Miss Belle, who is attending the U. of W., for a time and then go to Bellingham for a visit.

Frederick D. Labbe, the well known Alaska representative of the Marshall-Wells Hardware company of Portland, Oregon, has been transferred to Nevada. Mr. Labbe was in Wrangell this week en route south.

Binkley-Westcott

Miss Marjory Westcott and Mr. Paul William Binkley, both of Wrangell, were married in Ketchikan Saturday, November 13, by Rev. H. P. Corser. When Mr. Corser went to Ketchikan on the Jefferson, he had no idea that his services would be required in that capacity, Metlakatla being his destination. The bride-to-be and her mother, Mrs. Schaffner, were fellow passengers but it was not till the boat reached Ketchikan that anything was said about a wedding, and then Mr. Binkley appeared and speedily stated that the services of the rector from his home town were required. Mr. Corser, realizing the importance of the occasion, made arrangements with the boat which was in waiting to take him further, to postpone its departure long enough for him to tie the knot, and in due time Mr. and Mrs. Paul William Binkley were receiving congratulations. The bride is well known here, having lived in Wrangell winters for several years. The groom is a veteran of the World War and came here to make his home with his parents upon his discharge from service. He is employed in Ketchikan at present and had purchased and furnished a home there for his bride. Their many friends wish them a happy future.

A Delightful Concert

The concert given by Mrs. John T. Towers last Thursday night for the benefit of the school was attended by an appreciative audience that taxed the capacity of the Redmen lodge rooms to the utmost. The excellent program of vocal and instrumental selections was supplemented by interesting and instructive remarks about the composers Wagner and Mascagni and their operas. Mrs. Towers was accompanied on the mandolin by Mr. G. W. Upshaw in several of the numbers. In response to the ovation which followed the closing song of the program, Mrs. Towers gave some extra vocal selections, one of which was "The Americans Come," a number particularly appropriate for Armistice Day. The net proceeds of the evening were nearly $70, which will be used for the good of the school.

St. Philip's Church

November 21, 7:30 p. m. Sunday evening theme will be: "Going Ahead or Falling Down." There is a fall of man going on continually. It is up to each one to choose whether he shall be a part of this fall. Thanksgiving Day service at the Church, 10 a. m. In the evening at 7:30 p. m., there will be one of Hillis' lectures illustrated by 50 views entitled, "The Story of the Pilgrims." The admission, 25c and 10c, will be to cover expenses. Reserved seat tickets will be on sale Tuesday.

Notice

There will be a special meeting of the Civic Improvement Club at the city hall Friday afternoon at three o'clock to nominate officers for the Alaska Federation.

The City of Seattle has been taken off the Alaska run for her annual overhauling.

Estate of Harry Wallace Is Closed In Record Time

Mrs. Laura Wallace was discharged as administratrix of the estate of the late Harry Wallace by U. S. Commissioner W. G. Thomas last week under the Territorial act governing such cases. Mr. Wallace died last spring leaving no will. As there were no creditors, the usual sixty day period which is allowed for settlement in addition to the six months was waived in this case and Mrs. Wallace's first accounting was also her final one. This is the first time in the history of Southeastern Alaska, and perhaps in all Alaska, that a case of this kind has been settled so expeditiously, the speedy settlement affecting a considerable saving in time and expense.

Big New Steamship For the Alaska Run

TACOMA—The keel was laid for the 6,000-ton motorship, which the Alaska Steamship company is building for Alaska service. The ship will be completed, save the installation of the machinery, in March. The new ship, according to plans given out some months ago, will be the first palatial ocean liner to enter the Alaskan service and will meet every requirement of tourist and de lux travel. She will be modern in every respect and have great speed.

Work on Guild Room is Begun

For several years the ladies of St. Philip's Guild have been planning to build an addition to the gymnasium for a Guild room but for various reasons, the work has been postponed from time to time. When the ladies had finished their accounting at the close of their Christmas sale, it was found that there was enough money on hand to begin the work and the ground has been cleared and the foundation work started. It will not be possible to complete the building at this time but a part of it, at least, will be finished. In addition to the Guild room, a 10 foot extension will be made to the gymnasium for a stage, thus adding to the seating capacity of that building. The Guild room will be 20 by 26 feet in size and will be well lighted so as to make a good work room for the ladies. A lean-to addition on one side, 12 by 20 feet will provide a kitchen and store-room.

Wrangell Receiving Notoriety on Ac- count of Deer

(Seattle Times)

Members of the Seattle Park Board this morning will direct the transfer of an Alaskan buck deer from the steamship City of Seattle to the Woodland Park zoo. The big animal is a present from Mayor J. G. Grant of Wrangell, Alaska, to Seattle.

Plans were made yesterday afternoon to move the deer from the steamship to the park, but as the steamship did not arrive until 5 o'clock it was thought best to wait until this morning.

A big reception is expected at the park when the news is circulated among the children. It is expected many will be on hand when the deer is introduced to the park's herd.

The animal was captured last June by Captain Owens of the mail boat Princess Pat. Captain Owens turned his prize over to the mayor of Wrangell, and it was turned out in an inclosure with other deer. But wolves raided the inclosure, killing off many of the deer, and the offer was made to Seattle.

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor

Three hundred years ago, the Pilgrim Fathers landed on the shores of Massachusetts and founded a nation.

Two years ago the armies of the civilized world, imbued with that same love of freedom held by the founders of this country, forced the powers of tyranny to their knees to sue for peace.

Throughout the war now ended, with its unfading memories, the United States did its share nobly and uncomplainingly, led in all patriotic activities by the men and women of Alaska.

We are thankful that the people of our country are returning to peaceful pursuits without the serious disturbances accompanying the readjustment of conditions in other countries, and that in the recent political campaigns, the defeated parties have accepted the verdict of the electorate, confident that the United States, safeguarded under the Constitution, will furnish to the world an example of free and democratic government.

Now, THEREFORE, I, Thomas Riggs, Jr., Governor of Alaska, do proclaim Thursday, November 25th a Holiday, to be observed throughout the Territory of Alaska as Thanksgiving Day to be celebrated according to the dictates of religious conscience in the home and in the church, by appropriate ceremonies and prayers of gratitude.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Territory of Alaska, in Juneau, the capital, this 11th day of November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Forty-fifth.

THOMAS RIGGS, JR.
Governor.

K. J. SOMMERS,
Ex-officio Secretary of Alaska.

Neuralgic Pains

Give Way to Soothing Hamlin's Wizard Oil

Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe, simple and effective treatment for both headache and neuralgia. Rubbed in where the pain is, it eases the tortured nerves and almost invariably brings quick relief. Keep a supply on hand.

Wizard Oil is a good dependable preparation to have in the medicine chest for first aid when the doctor may be far away. Its healing, anti-septic qualities can always be relied upon as a preventive against infection, or other serious results, from sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as good, too, for sore feet, stiff neck, frost bites, cold sores and canker sores.

Generous size bottle 35c. If you are troubled with constipation or sick headache try Hamlin's Wizard Liver Whips. Just pleasant little pink pills at drugstore for 35c.

Fortunes in Foxes

With the demand greater than ever for better class furs, Alaska fox ranchers are making huge fortunes with slight investments, according to Frank L. Graham of Elamar, Alaska, who arrived to spend the winter here. "It is surprising to note that there are 10 fox ranches near Elamar now where a few years ago there was only one, and the same proportion is shown in many sections of the country," said Mr. Graham. "The climatic conditions of Southwestern Alaska is the best for the raising of foxes and the furs obtained are beautiful."

The world's largest user of the purest and best maple sugar offers you the new Karo Maple

A rare and delicious syrup at a moderate price. Don't worry about the high price of maple syrup. Of special interest to every mother

When you wonder how the new Karo Maple gets its delicious tang of rich maple syrup remember—

The makers of Karo Maple use annually over a thousand tons of the purest and best flavored maple sugar from the finest maple groves in Vermont and Canada.

This is one reason why over five million cans of Karo Maple were purchased by American housewives last year.

This is a greater sale, by far, than any kind of maple syrup offered.

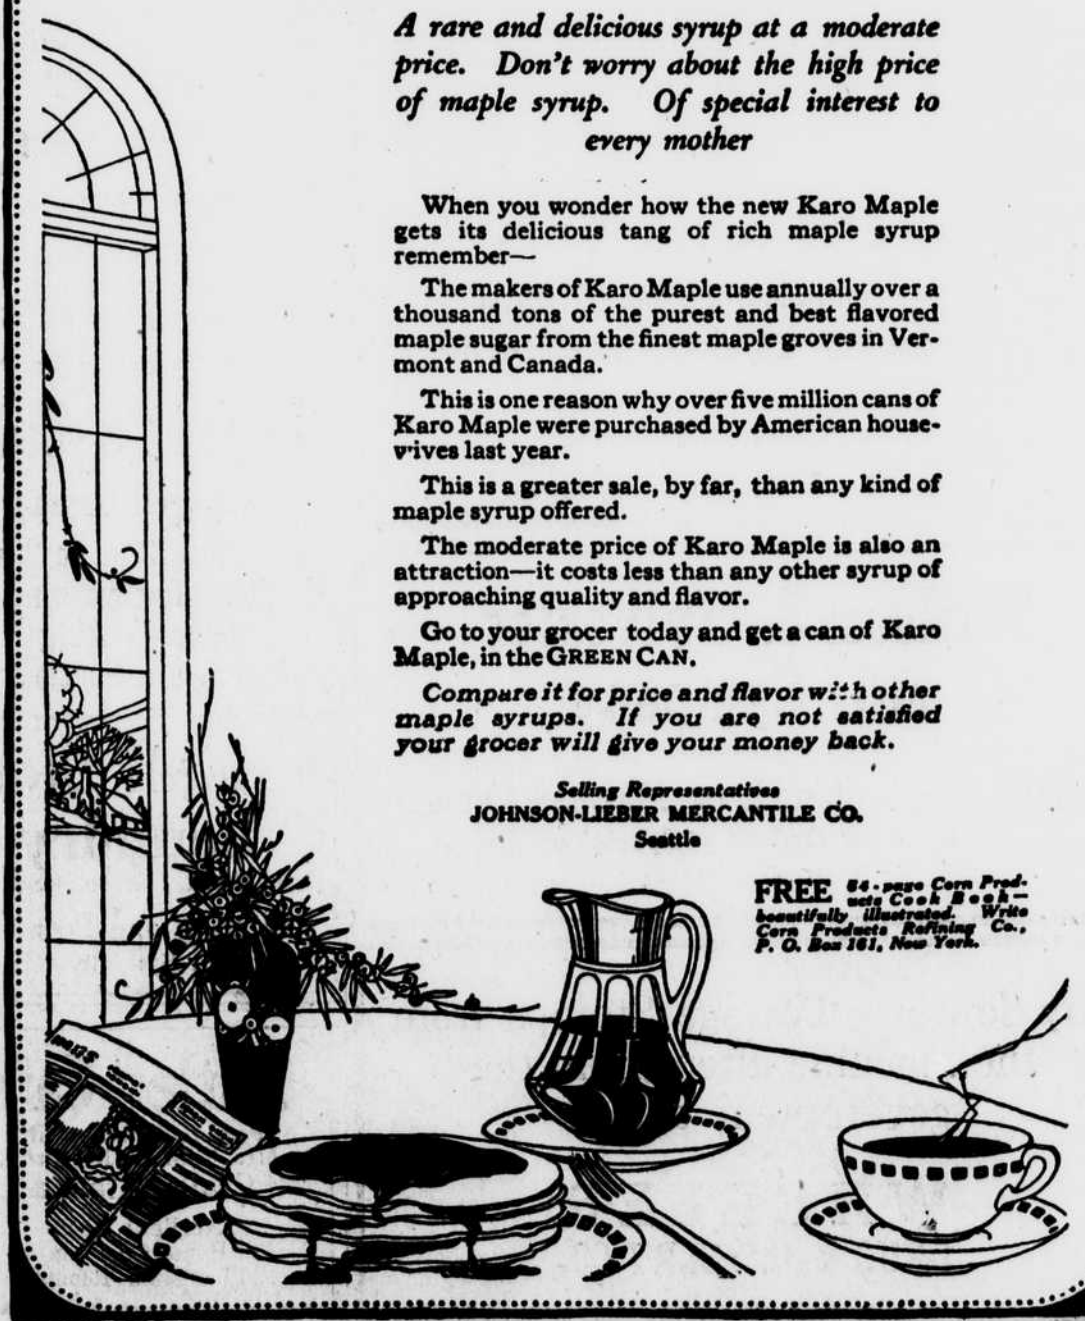

The moderate price of Karo Maple is also an attraction—it costs less than any other syrup of approaching quality and flavor.

Go to your grocer today and get a can of Karo Maple, in the GREEN CAN.

Compare it for price and flavor with other maple syrups. If you are not satisfied your grocer will give your money back.

School Notes

Mrs. J. T. Towers entertained the school at the last assembly. The program consisted of a splendid talk on "Heroes, Past and Present." The following two songs were beautifully rendered: "The Song that Reached My Heart," and "The Lost Chord." The visitors were Mrs. J. T. Towers, Mrs. McCormack, Mrs. J. G. Grant and Mrs. J. H. Neville. The visitors at the previous assembly were Mrs. William Paul and Hon. P. C. McCormack.

The net receipts of the concert given by Mrs. Towers for the benefit of the school were $68.00.

Mr. William Paul will sing for this week's assembly.

A Thanksgiving program will be given by the primary and intermediate grades at 1:15 p. m., Wednesday 24. It will be a miscellaneous program consisting of recitations, songs and dances. Parents and friends are cordially invited.

This week is Children's Book Week—a nation-wide event established to foster a love of good books in the heart of the child.

Dr. P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, has designated the week of December 5-11 as School Week and has requested the "chief school officer of each state and territory to take such action as may be necessary to cause the people to use this week in such a way as will most effectively disseminate accurate information in regard to the conditions and needs of the schools, enhance appreciation of the value of education and create such interest as will result in better opportunities for education and larger appropriations for schools of all kinds and grades."

Superintendent L. D. Henderson has designated the week mentioned above as School Week in the Territory of Alaska and suggests that the teachers in both elementary and high schools should devote a few hours during the week to the subject of schools, telling the pupils about education in the community and nation, how the schools are supported and how much money is spent, their economic, social and civic value and other facts of interest.

Native Brotherhood Convention Convenes Here on Monday

During the coming week Wrangell will have as her guests the Alaska Native Brotherhood. The Seventh Annual Convention of that organization convenes here Monday. The grand secretary, Louis F. Paul, has received word that delegations are coming from Juneau, Douglas, Sitka and Haines. Visitors will also come from the West Coast and from Metlakatla. The Sitka Brotherhood are bringing their band and basket ball team. While here they will play the Lazy Five and also the American Legion team. The Sitka band will give a concert Saturday night, November 27. The Sitka band now has for its director, Alfred Gordon, formerly of Metlakatla.

During the sessions of the convention many topics of vital interest to the Natives will be discussed. A program of the convention is published on another page.

The Arctic Brotherhood gave one of their popular smokers last night. Two boxing bouts, the first between Lennie Engstrom and George Case and the second between James Gleason and Kendall Northrop, added interest to the occasion. Cards and refreshments finished out the evening.

Mrs. Harriet Johnson left today for Seattle.
